

Preliminary Programme

MONDAY 1ST JULY 2024

8am – 9m: Welcome desk

Lyon 2, Grand Amphi

9am – 9:30am: Opening Ceremony

Lyon 2, Grand Amphi

9 :30 am – 10:30am: Imago Mundi Homage

Lyon 2, Grand Amphi

11 am – 12:30am: Plenary Session1: Steps aside

University Lyon 2, Grand Amphithéâtre

Cattaneo A M, Mapping the early modern connected world from Japan: Analysis of a 17th Century Japanese Map from the Kōchi Prefectural Library

Kantor I, The transatlantic slave trade in manuscript and printed cartographic sources: some evidences and configurations between 1648 and 1815

Edney M H, The myths of transformation and translatio in the history of cartography

2pm – 3 :30 pm: Oral presentations 1a - Why make globes?

De Biaggi E, Sirdey J, Gauthiez B, The hectic history of a globe made in Lyon in 1700

King R J, The southern continent on the globe published in Lyon by Guillaume Nicolai Belga in 1603

Phelippot G, On the « Observations de Mrs de l'Académie Royale des sciences »: A new image of the world in Nicolas de Fer's Mappemonde

Pegg R A, Late Ming Chinese scholars and European Jesuits make a terrestrial globe

2pm – 3 :30 pm: Oral presentations 1b - Materiality of maps

Depuydt J, Wonderful woodblocks and curious copperplates: The hidden gems behind maps

Storms M, Modified maps – Traces of use and ownership on early modern maps

Trachet J, Illuminating triangulation methods in 16th Century Bruges: The application of MLRI to reveal to reveal incised underdrawings

Khotimsky D A, Robles Macías L A, From travelogue to map: Alessandro Zorzi's forgotten sketches of Eastern Europe and the Middle East

4pm – 5 :30 pm: Oral presentations 2a – Maps and travels

Piccolotto Siqueira Bueno B, Landscape archaeology exercises: The first general map of Brazil between travellers' accounts and watercolours.

Chant E, Scenery and sea: Mapping early maritime cruise tourism in Patagonia

Altić M, Geography at the intersection of East and West: French Jesuit traveler maps of 17th Century Vietnam.

Gaspar J A, Magnetism, navigation, and cartography in the early modern period: An elusive and problematic relationship

4pm – 5 :30 pm: Oral presentations 2b – Discourse-oriented maps

Roelofs B, The emergence of map-thinking in Dutch medicine. Investigating cholera maps from the Netherlands (1832-1866)

Gabriel J, City planning or racist prevision? How urban renewal maps usurped democratic process in the urban North

Butler K, A judicial pub crawl: The influence of changing liquor licensing laws on the distribution and circulation of drinks maps in late 19th Century Britain

Van Schaik A-R, Analyzing early modern story maps: An interdisciplinary approach

6 :15 pm – 8 pm: Paper trails – Maps and images of travel in France and elsewhere, 19th – 21st Century

ENS de Lyon, Diderot Library (Ecole Normale Supérieure de Lyon, Bibliothèque Diderot)

TUESDAY 2ND JULY 2024

8am – 9am: Welcome desk

IUT Lyon 3

9am – 10 :30 am: Oral presentations 3a – Imaging the world

Zheng M, Intersecting worlds: The re-interpretation, transformation, and integration of Jesuit mapping and geographical knowledge in Zhang Huang's Tushu Bian

Martinez C, Terra Australis in a 17th Century Spanish manuscript atlas, or how to read a map in a sequence

Mann E, Centering the Caribbean: A tale of two 17th Century Atlases

Močičková J, Vokurka M, Circulation of maps and geographical data in the mid-18th Century central Europe

9am – 10 :30 am: Oral presentations 3b – Identity and boundaries

Arrillaga L. R., Incommensurability of space and impossible accuracy in the boundary demarcation commissions of Spain and Portugal in the Río de la Plata (1750-1801)

Warminski A, Heritage, identity, and mapping: Digitally investigating the archaeological and cultural landscapes in imperial cartography of the Levant and Iraq

Novaes A. R., Mapping travels and encounters in the Amazon forest: Towards a transnational history of boundary-making at the River Verde

Mukherjee S, Follow the river: Discovering « traditional » borders in late Qing frontier management

11am – 12 :30am: Oral presentations 4a – Modern era cartography

Ion C, Cantemir's Moldavia in European cartography. Putting eastern Europe on the map in the age of Enlightenment

Török Z G, A « Petite révolution »: Sebastian Münster, Johannes Honter and their maps of Transylvania

Filipova H, Plus ultra: Ideology of Russian expansion in the Hetmanate and mapping land surveys in the 1710-1720's

Hoogvliet M, de Vries A, Deconstructing, decolonizing and decentering the Blaeu Atlases and maps

11am – 12 :30am: Oral presentations 4b - Maps for defense in China and Korea

Soh J, Emergence of islands in 18th and 19th Century Korean cartography: Mapping, geopolitics and proto-nationalism

Hao L, Exploring the Chinese cartographic material in 17th Century Korea: Focus on the origin of Kim Su-Hong's Cheonha Gogeu Daechong Pyeollamdo

Yang Y, Knowledge production and reading of maps: The mapmaking and changes of Kim Suhong's Choenha gogeu daechong pyeollam do

Son K, Navigating changes: Ming's coastal defense perception shift during the Imjin War (1592) and its cartographic representation

1:30pm – 3 :30pm: Plenary session 2 – The building of discourse in maps

Hellström P, Jean-Baptiste d'Anville's unmapping of Africa

Benison L, Place names or place claims? The discursive power of toponyms on Dutch map of Hollandia Nova

Bockelman B, Missionary frontier to map metropole: A tale of two Thomases and their English map of Patagonia, 1771-1774

Besse J-M, Censorship and cartography. The Roman Inquisition and the diffusion of printed maps in the late 16th Century

4 pm – 5 :30 pm: Oral presentations 5a – Environment as resources

Pérez Machado R P, Historical cartography in the socio-environmental atlas of Lençõis Maranhenses – Northeast (Brazil)

Edelson S M, Work and trade the edges of empires: The political economy of urban views in Ogilby's America (1671)

Furtado J F, « The map of North America » by Hermann Moll, and cartography

Robles Macías L A, Unveiling the journey of Juan Vespucci's printed polar hemispheres (ca. 1522-1524)

4 pm – 5 :30 pm: Oral presentations 5b – On map semiology

Choi T Y, Vignettes and visual nostalgia in 19th Century British maps

Svenningsen S R, Colorful arrows and xerox copies. Towards a history of cartography in Cold War military operational plans

Zanin C, Trémélo-Apers M-L, Graphic semiology: Old fashion or not?

Dando C, American redlining maps as iconic images

5 :45pm – 7:30 pm Exhibitions visits

Picturing the Far Away, a European Vision

Lyon Municipal Library (Bibliothèque Municipale de Lyon), Lyon-Part Dieu

Teaching Maps: On the trail of cartography at the University of Lyon

University Jean Moulin Lyon 3, Manufacture des Tabacs University Library (Bibliothèque Universitaire)

Vulnerabilities – What do maps say?

Lyon Municipal Archives (Archives Municipales de Lyon)

The detail and the whole: Mapping the Rhône and Lyon area

Rhône Department Archives (Archives départementales du Rhône et de la Métropole de Lyon)

WEDNESDAY 3RD JULY 2024

8 am – 9 am: Welcome desk

IUT Lyon 3

9am – 10 :30am: Oral presentations 6a – Explorations, ideas and realities

Griffioen M, Tracing travelers' map encounters in Early Modern travel journals (1500-1800)

Isaksen L, An un-noticed cartographic revolution? Islamic world maps and the cosmic imaginary

Vannieuwenhuyze B., A summer full of map encounters. Cartographic literacy and the ordinariness of maps in the Netherlands in 1823

Dorofeeva-Lichtmann V, Conceptualising terrestrial space in early China reconsidered through traditional cartography: Insularity versus mainland

9am – 10 :30am: Oral presentations 6b - Ancient sources in cartography

Macchioro R, At the crossroad between historiography and geography: Exploring maps in Galvaneus de la Flamma's manuscripts

Blümer B, Layers of the “Liber Insularum Archipelagi” : Rereadings its Latin past

Richard Dalsace J, Three sons of Noah for three parts of the world: The making of a cartographic convention through Carolingian networks of knowledge

Favero F, Galvaneus de la Flamma’s « Cronica universalis »: new findings about John of Carignano

11am – 12 :30am: Posters

Hofmann C, Netchine E, Garel-Grislin J, East Asian cartography at the Bibliothèque Nationale de France: Construction and composition of a national collection (17th - 20th Centuries)

De Potestad P, From tracks to traces: Mapping of routes on the north face of Mont Blanc

Tronchère-Cottet H, Ducourthial C, Levelling data from 19th Century military plans of Lyon and GIS: A method for analyzing the evolution of topography at the service of archeology

Tůmová M, Practical or/and beautiful? Decoration of manuscript maps in Bohemia in the 18th and 1st half of the 19th Century

Fonseca F P, Kuvasney E, The use of historical maps in research on the City of São Paulo: Naturalized narratives

Agrech A, Madagascar: From base maps to data patchwork

Leeflang J, A new carto-bibliography of Dutch-made maps in bibles (c. early 16th - mid 18th Centuries)

Cruz M N, Mapping ideas of race in the age of the Enlightenment: A historical analysis of the mural maps of Longchamps and Janvier (1754)

Germain M, Candela T, From traditional cartography to webmapping: New perspectives for natural risk management

Chodejovska E, Rural landscape in Central Europe as mapped in the pre-modern Period. Local maps in the Czech Republic

Wittmann K R, The Life and works of an Italian in the Fortunate islands: Leonardo Torriani (c. 1560-1628) and the first urban plans of the Canaries

Lelo K, Travel itineraries in Rome: An investigation of early modern sources across Europe

Jagessar P, Mapping as worldmaking: Cartographic internationalism in the interwar period

Jardim M E, Art, technology and chemistry in the photo-reproduction of maps and drawings by blueprinting and related reprographic processes

Mazagol P-O, Maps under the Loire river – The Gorges de la Loire as a strategic mapped area

1:30pm – 3:30pm: Workshops

3:30pm - 5pm: Oral presentations 7a - Mappers and the mapping of urban waters from the 15th to the 20th Centuries

D’Orgeix E, Mapping waters: Bélidor’s L’architecture hydraulique (1737-1750) and the birth of urban hydraulic monograph’s in the 18th Century.

Dumasy-Rabineau, A Map of Venice and its lagoon in late 15th Century

Shaalán C, Water and toponymy in Alexandria, Egypt (1850-1950)

Grosjean E, "God created the world, the Dutch made Holland": More than six centuries of water management through urban cartography of the city of Dordrecht

3:30pm – 5pm: Oral Presentations 7b – Wilderness and forests

Keyssner D, Remapping a global forest in the GDR: The Project of the « Haack Großer Weltatlas » (1964-1968)

Skurnik J, Making and moving maps in the postcolonial world: Examples from the Finnish cooperative mapping of the Global South, c. 1980s-1990s

Ioana Z, Woodland cartography – Charting Wallachia's unique manuscript maps

Moura D A S, Iberian colonialism and customized cartography of south-central America: The map « El Gran río Paraná nuevamente delineado » form the topographic collection

5pm – 5:50pm: ISHMap Meeting

6pm – 8pm: Imago Mundi Meeting

THURSDAY 4TH JULY

8am – 9am: Welcome desk

IUT Lyon 3

9am – 10:30am: Oral presentations 8a – Mapping Nations

Segal Z, The Jabotinsky-Perlman atlas (1925) as a globally oriented "national atlas"

Frei P, The German Army map of Switzerland

Svatek P, Simon Wiesenthal as a cartographer

Gallia A, Castaldi M, Grava M, Berti C, School wall maps in Italy. History of an educational tool, story of a heritage

9am – 10 :30 am: Oral presentations 8b- Remapping the World in east Asia

Caboara M, A composite map of east Asia assembled in Macau in 1593

Papelitzky E, World maps from China in Japan: Studying the case of Nishikawa Joken's geography

Lin H, The impact of circulation of Michele Ruggieri's manuscript atlas of China in Europe from 1590 to the 17th Century

Cams M, The Role of large-format maps in the encounter between administrative and geometrical modes of mapping in 16th and 17th Century China

11am – 12:30am: Oral presentations 9a - Indigenous knowledge and mapping Empire in the Americas

Mandelblatt B, “Liberté, égalité, and fraternité” in the Lesser Antilles? Indigeneity, imperial toponymy, and revolutionary cartography in the Caribbean

Price C, Mapping Cherokee geopolitics: John Stuart’s map [Map of the area between Fort Loudon, Tennessee, and Kaskaskia, Illinois]

Tamboli V, Flecheras and Spanish Arawaks: Fugitivity, mobility, and independence between the Orinoco and Essequibo Rivers in South America

Braccio N, Contested authorship in 17th Century Algonquian mapmaking

11am – 12 :30am: Oral presentations 9b – Mapping Environment

Van Netten D, Frozen sea and melting ice. Mapping the Arctic ice cap

Laurent-Varin Emin C, Retrospective cartography: The example of Rhône vineyard labels

Heffernan M, Mapping Europe’s soils: National project and international ideals

1:30pm – 3:30pm: Plenary session 3 – Mapping rivers

Rui Feng L, Antiquarianism or new knowledge? The source of the Yellow River on an Edo-era Japanese map of China’s Ming empire

Gomes Barreto V J, Mapping river paths: William Chandless’s cartography of western Amazon (1864-1865)

Sarkar O, Going with the flow: Colonizing the Bengal delta in maps and atlases

Dupont C, Confluences matter: cartography of the Congo River by the Institut national de Géographie (Brussels, 1880s)

4pm – 5 :30pm: Oral presentations 10a - From field to print, practices and discourses in road maps

Olson K, Exploring equatorial Africa by car? Michelin’s 1961 “Afrique Centre et Sud”

Morcrette Q, The image and the road – A quantitative and comparative approach of road maps illustrations (20th 21st Centuries)

Pablo-Martí F, Tracing the unseen paths: Comparative analysis of two late 16th Century French road maps

Akerman J, Mapping and advocacy: Anthon L. Westgard and the American road map’s age of discovery

4pm – 5 :30pm: Oral presentations 10b – Maps and conflicts

Serchuk C, Documenting dispute: Process and product in the mapping of enclaved villages in Artois, 1560

Baumann A, Litigation for dominion rights – hunting maps at the Imperial Chamber Court (1495-1806)

Dupont H, Danish Norwegian conflict in East Greenland

Van Duzer C, The History of map-making in a title-page allegory in Reilly's Grosser Deutscher Atlas (1796)

5 :45pm – 7:30 pm Exhibitions visits

Picturing the Far Away, a European Vision

Lyon Municipal Library (Bibliothèque Municipale de Lyon), Lyon-Part Dieu

Teaching Maps: On the trail of cartography at the University of Lyon

University Jean Moulin Lyon 3, Manufacture des Tabacs University Library (Bibliothèque Universitaire)

Vulnerabilities – What do maps say?

Lyon Municipal Archives (Archives Municipales de Lyon)

The detail and the whole: Mapping the Rhône and Lyon area

Rhône Department Archives (Archives départementales du Rhône et de la Métropole de Lyon)

FRIDAY, 5TH JULY 2024

8am – 9am: Welcome Desk

IUT Lyon 3

9am – 10 :30 am: Oral presentations 11a - Cartographic challenges in the post-ottoman Near-East

Le Douarin L, A new map for a new regime? The influence of Ottoman legacy and international cooperation in French cartography of the Levant Mandates

Keilo J, Mapping religions in post-Ottoman Levant. Old methods, new challenges

Vaienti B, Deformative signatures: Studying cartographic deformations as a source of knowledge in 19th Century Jerusalem

Demhardt I J, Royal Prussian survey, Sven Hedin, and the World War I cartography of Ottoman Mesopotamia

9am – 10 :30 am: Oral presentations 11b – Digitalization issues

Petitpierre R, Exploring the evolution of cartographic representation at scale through visual computing

Frey F, Maps in numbers: The digitalization of Swiss cartography, 1960-2000

Guhunnec P, Mapping 200 Years of Paris: An algorithmically-enhanced quantitative and qualitative approach to urban history

Grevsmühl S, Virtual globes and environmental storytelling: History and challenges

11am – 12 :30: Oral presentations 12a - Digital approaches to the critical analysis of historical maps

Duménieu B, The Paris coordinate reference system, geometrically surveyed by the citizen Verniquet

Tual S, An approach to extract structured information from maps and registers guided by the history of the Napoleonic cadaster

Perret J, Reconstructing the location of Parisian address numbering in the 19th century by cross-referencing spatial and social sources

Joliveau T, Moncla L, A digital exploration of geographic knowledge in Diderot and d’Alembert’s Encyclopédie

11am – 12 :30: Oral presentations 12b - Mapping networks in 19th Century Africa

Froment D, Making Kilimanjaro: Western mapping of East Africa in the 19th Century

Braun L F, J. J. Herfst and the “official” cartography of the Orange Free State, South Africa, 1890-1904

Bassett T J, Mastering Senegal. The Permanent Commission for the map of Senegambia, 1857-1861

Collado A R, The role of cartography in the settlement of Western Sahara’s colonial borders

2pm – 4pm: Plenary session 4 – New challenges in the history of cartography

Confluences Museum (Musée des Confluences)

Vuolanto A, Not just an Image – the digital collection of Ptolemy Atlases and how to use it

Panecki T, Superficial or profound change? How digital tools are influencing the history of cartography scholarship?

Lois C, Maps in the air, materiality and spatiality in digital era

4 :30 pm – 6 :30pm: Confluences Museum visit

Confluences Museum

6 :30pm: Farewell boat tour and dinner